"... This book is full of poetry and science. A remarkable achievement . . ."

— Deborah Heiligman, author of From Caterpillar to Butterfly and Mom

Caterpillars attract children like magnets—their shapes, colors, and locomotion styles are impossible to resist.

Award-winning poet and nature writer Marilyn Singer guides children on an exploration of the dazzling diversity of the world's caterpillars with hundreds of four-color photos.

ANIMAL FIGHTS
Catherine Ham
10 x 8, 32 pages
HC PLC w/jacket
$14.95
July

Animals fight in dozens of bizarre ways. Giraffes attack each other by ramming heads, while turkeys and camels wrestle with their necks. Kangaroos, foxes, and tigers stand on their hind legs to fight, while zebras fight with kicks and bites. Written in whimsical verse ideal for reading aloud.

"The vivid photography creates another dimension of the reading experience, drawing students into the rich, poetic text. Instead of just reading about animals, children will be relating to them."

— Meta Commerse, Teacher, Poet, Naturalist, and Grandparent

ANIMAL NAPS
Catherine Ham
10 x 8, 32 pages
HC PLC w/jacket
$14.95, July

From tigers and turtles to gorillas and 'gators, explore the sleeping habits and locales of more than two dozen animals. Leopards, koalas, and some types of monkeys sleep high up in trees, while seals and tortoises doze on beach sand in the sunshine. Written in whimsical verse ideal for reading aloud.
